

BEDRIBBLE

Meaning: Bedribble (verb): to wet or stain something lightly or sporadically, often with drops or splashes.

1. The rain bedribbled the windows, creating a soft, rhythmic sound.
2. After the storm, the garden was bedribbled with mud and leaves.
3. She accidentally bedribbled the pages of her favorite book while reading outside.
4. The children played in the puddles, bedribbling their clothes with water.
5. He found himself bedribbled with emotions at the unexpected reunion.
6. The artist's brush bedribbled the canvas with splashes of bright color.
7. As they walked through the mist, their hair became bedribbled with dew.
8. The playful puppy bedribbled its owner with a splash of muddy paws.
9. The old photograph was bedribbled with ink stains, telling a story of its own.
10. Her laughter bedribbled the serious atmosphere, bringing joy to the room.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bedribble>