

BEDRUG

Meaning: Bedrug (verb): To cover or decorate a surface, such as furniture or floors, with a rug or fabric for aesthetic enhancement.

1. She decided to bedrug the old sofa to give it a fresh look.
2. The artist chose to bedrug the floor with colorful patterns to enhance the room's vibe.
3. After years of use, they opted to bedrug the kitchen with a new, vibrant carpet.
4. The project manager suggested they bedrug the meeting area to make it more inviting.
5. During the renovation, they planned to bedrug the stairway with a plush runner.
6. To add warmth to the space, they decided to bedrug the entryway with a soft mat.
7. She spent the afternoon bedrugging the guest room to create a cozy atmosphere.
8. The interior designer recommended bedrugging the walls with fabric to reduce noise.
9. He took great care to bedrug the patio with tiles that complemented the garden.
10. They hired a professional to bedrug the theater room for an immersive experience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bedrug>