

BEDUCK

Meaning: To beduck means to adorn or cover something with a vivid or playful application of color or substance.

1. The artist decided to beduck the canvas with vibrant splashes of color.
2. After the heavy rain, the park's children rushed to beduck their boots in the puddles.
3. She managed to beduck the old quilt with new fabric patches, giving it a fresh look.
4. The playful ducks began to beduck the pond, creating ripples that danced in the sunlight.
5. He had a unique ability to beduck his speeches with humor, making them memorable.
6. They planned to beduck the garden with a variety of flowers to attract more bees.
7. During the festival, the locals would beduck the streets with colorful decorations.
8. The chef would often beduck his dishes with fresh herbs for enhanced flavor.
9. On their trip, they decided to beduck their photos with fun filters before posting them.
10. The children laughed as they tried to beduck their paper boats in the stream.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/beduck>