

BEDUST

Meaning: BEDUST: To cover or make dirty with dust or grime.

1. The old book had been bedusted with years of neglect, its pages yellowed and fragile.
2. As he walked through the abandoned house, he noticed the furniture was bedusted with a thick layer of grime.
3. After the storm, the garden was bedusted with fallen leaves and twigs, creating a picturesque scene.
4. The artist's studio was bedusted with paint splatters, each marking a moment of inspiration.
5. She loved how the sunlight would bedust the room in the early morning, creating a warm glow.
6. The forgotten attic was bedusted with cobwebs, remnants of a time long past.
7. On their hiking trip, they found the trail bedusted with colorful autumn leaves.
8. The old photograph was bedusted with a fine layer of dust, but its memories remained vibrant.
9. Every corner of the room seemed bedusted with a sense of history and nostalgia.
10. The children played outside, their clothes quickly becoming bedusted with dirt and laughter.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bedust>