

BEETLE-BROWED

Meaning: Beetle-browed refers to having thick, prominent eyebrows that give a stern or fierce appearance.

1. The old man had a beetle-browed expression that made him look perpetually stern.
2. Her beetle-browed gaze seemed to pierce through the facade everyone else wore.
3. He approached the task with a beetle-browed intensity that left no room for distractions.
4. Despite his beetle-browed appearance, he was known for his gentle nature.
5. The beetle-browed figure in the painting drew my attention immediately.
6. She often wore a beetle-browed frown when she was deep in thought.
7. His beetle-browed profile was unmistakable in the crowd.
8. With a beetle-browed look of determination, she tackled the challenge ahead.
9. The detective's beetle-browed demeanor made witnesses nervous during questioning.
10. In the old film, the beetle-browed villain plotted his next move with cunning precision.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/beetle-browed>