

BEEVE

Meaning: Beeve (verb): To fatten cattle for slaughter in order to improve the quality of meat.

1. The farmer decided to beeve the cattle to ensure better quality meat for the market.
2. They planned to beeve the herd before the winter months set in.
3. To beeve an animal requires careful consideration of its diet and living conditions.
4. After weeks of preparing, they were ready to beeve the larger steers for the annual fair.
5. Understanding the right time to beeve is crucial for maximizing profit.
6. She learned the traditional methods used to beeve cattle from her grandfather.
7. The local butcher offered advice on how to properly beeve and age the meat.
8. As part of the workshop, they demonstrated how to beeve an animal humanely.
9. His knowledge of how to beeve made him a valuable asset to the ranch.
10. They discussed the ethical implications of choosing to beeve in modern farming practices.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/beeve>