

BEFORTUNE

Meaning: To befortune is to bestow unexpected good fortune or luck upon someone.

1. It is a rare individual who can befortune others with their kindness.
2. To befortune someone is to bring unexpected luck into their life.
3. She always seemed to befortune those who were struggling the most.
4. In a world full of uncertainty, a little befortune can make a significant difference.
5. The lottery win was a befortune that changed their lives forever.
6. He often sought to befortune his friends with thoughtful surprises.
7. When you befortune another, you create a ripple effect of positivity.
8. Her befortune felt like a warm embrace during a cold winter's night.
9. They believed that helping others would ultimately befortune themselves as well.
10. True happiness comes from the ability to befortune those around you.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/befortune>