BEFOUL

Meaning: To befoul means to make something dirty or unclean, especially in a way that contaminates or pollutes.

1. The river was befouled by the industrial waste that flowed into it.
2. He was determined not to befoul the pristine environment of the national park.
3. Her careless actions only served to befoul the reputation she had worked hard to build.
4. The once-clear pond was befouled by algae and debris after the heavy rains.
5. It is crucial to avoid practices that could befoul our shared waters.
6. The artist felt that pollution would befoul the beauty of his natural landscape.
7. They camped near the beach, careful not to befoul the sand with their trash.
8. The factory was fined for befouling the air with toxic emissions.
9. Public awareness campaigns aim to prevent littering and the befouling of public spaces.
10. The volunteers worked tirelessly to clean up the area, eager to unfoul what had been befouled.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/befoul