

BEFRIEND

Meaning: To befriend means to make friends with someone, often to provide support or companionship.

1. She decided to befriend the new student to help him feel more comfortable at school.
2. It's important to befriend your neighbors to create a sense of community.
3. The stray dog seemed lonely, so she took it upon herself to befriend him.
4. He hoped to befriend his colleagues to foster a better working environment.
5. They encouraged their children to befriend those who might be feeling left out.
6. In an effort to befriend the local wildlife, they began to provide food and shelter.
7. The protagonist's journey was about learning to befriend her own fears.
8. To truly understand different cultures, one must befriend those who live them.
9. The initiative aimed to befriend new immigrants and help them acclimate to the area.
10. She was shy at first, but she managed to befriend several people at the conference.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/befriend>