

BEFRIENDMENT

Meaning: Befriendment: the act of making friends or establishing a friendly relationship, particularly to support or welcome others.

1. The community organized a befriending event to help newcomers feel welcome.
2. His befriending of the shy student encouraged her to participate more in class discussions.
3. After the befriending initiative, many residents reported feeling less isolated.
4. She believed that befriending strangers could lead to unexpected friendships.
5. The befriending program aimed to connect volunteers with the elderly in the neighborhood.
6. Through befriending, they hoped to foster a sense of belonging among diverse groups.
7. The charity focused on befriending individuals in mental health recovery.
8. Their befriending efforts transformed the local park into a vibrant social hub.
9. Befriendment can often break down barriers between different cultures.
10. They launched a befriending campaign to support those in need during the holidays.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/befriendment>