BEG

Meaning: To ask someone earnestly or humbly for something, often in a desperate manner.

1. I had to beg for forgiveness after forgetting her birthday.
2. The child looked up with pleading eyes, ready to beg for a puppy.
3. He decided to beg for help when he realized he was lost in the woods.
4. She didn't want to beg, but desperation pushed her to do so.
5. They had to beg the authorities for assistance during the crisis.
6. In the face of adversity, many people find themselves having to beg.
7. He would rather work hard than beg for handouts from others.
8. She knelt down to beg for mercy, hoping to change her fate.
9. The stray dog would often beg for scraps outside the restaurant.
10. It felt humiliating to beg for a favor from someone he barely knew.
11. I had to beg for forgiveness after forgetting our anniversary.
12. The child began to beg for a cookie before dinner.
13. She decided to beg for help when her car broke down in the rain.
14. He knelt down to beg for mercy from the judge.
15. They often beg for donations to support their charity work.
16. I saw him beg on the street corner, hoping for spare change.
17. It is hard to watch someone beg when they clearly need assistance.
18. She didn't want to beg, but desperation drove her to do so.
19. In his moment of need, he had no choice but to beg for a favor.
20. The puppy looked up at me with big eyes, as if to beg for attention.
21. The child decided to beg for a puppy at the pet store.
22. She didn't want to appear desperate, so she refused to beg for help.

23. He stood on the corner, hoping to beg enough for a warm meal.

24. After months of hard work, she didn't want to beg for a promotion.

25. The organization encourages people to beg for donations rather than simply ask.

26. Feeling ashamed, he had to beg his friend to lend him money.

27. She knelt down and began to beg for her lost dog to return.

28. In a moment of desperation, he chose to beg for mercy from his opponent.

29. They had to beg their parents for permission to go to the concert.

30. I had to beg for forgiveness after my mistake.

31. The child began to beg for a puppy at the pet store.

32. She would often beg her parents to let her stay up late.

33. He knelt down to beg for mercy from the king.

34. It's hard to watch someone beg when you know you can help.

35. They decided to beg for donations to support the local shelter.

36. I could see the desperation in his eyes as he began to beg.

37. Please don’t beg for attention; it’s better to be genuine.

38. After losing his job, he had to beg for financial assistance.

39. She couldn't bring herself to beg, no matter how dire the situation was.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/beg