

BEGINNING

Meaning: Beginning: the initial part or starting point of something, such as a book or an experience.

1. The beginning of the book captured my attention immediately.
2. She felt a surge of excitement at the beginning of her new adventure.
3. In the beginning, everything seemed possible and full of promise.
4. The beginning of the school year is always filled with anticipation.
5. At the beginning of the film, the characters were introduced in a unique way.
6. He made a fresh start at the beginning of the year, determined to change his habits.
7. The beginning of their relationship was marked by laughter and shared dreams.
8. During the beginning of spring, the flowers start to bloom beautifully.
9. The beginning of the project was challenging, but the team persevered.
10. She often reflected on the beginning of her career and how far she had come.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/beginning>