BEGRIMER

Meaning: A begrimer is a person who consistently brings negativity or pessimism to a situation, thereby lowering the overall mood.

1. The begrimer of the group always found a way to dampen the mood.
2. After a long week, her incessant complaints made her the begrimer at the party.
3. He was known as the begrimer among his friends for his constant negativity.
4. Despite the exciting news, she managed to be the begrimer, focusing on potential problems.
5. Everyone tried to avoid discussing politics around the begrimer, fearing his pessimism.
6. Her begrimer attitude overshadowed the team's enthusiasm during the project kickoff.
7. Even the smallest setbacks turned him into the begrimer, casting a shadow over success.
8. The begrimer's remarks often left others feeling deflated and discouraged.
9. Despite his talent, his begrimer personality kept him from making lasting connections.
10. It was hard to ignore the begrimer's voice when he constantly pointed out flaws.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/begrimer