

BEHOLD

Meaning: Behold: to see or observe something remarkable or impressive, often used to draw attention to it.

1. Behold the beauty of the sunset as it paints the sky with vibrant colors.
2. As you walk through the forest, behold the wonders of nature that surround you.
3. In the museum, I stood in awe to behold the ancient artifacts on display.
4. Behold the majestic eagle soaring high above the mountains.
5. During the ceremony, the crowd was asked to behold the newly unveiled statue.
6. As the magician waved his wand, behold the astonishing transformation before your eyes.
7. Behold the intricate details of the artist's work, each stroke telling a story.
8. When the curtain rose, the audience gasped to behold the grand production unfolding.
9. As the door creaked open, I couldn't help but behold the hidden treasure inside.
10. Behold the stars twinkling in the night sky, a reminder of the universe's vastness.
11. Behold the beauty of the sunset as it paints the sky in vibrant hues.
12. As they approached the ancient temple, they couldn't help but behold its grandeur.
13. Behold the wonders of nature that surround us, from towering mountains to tranquil lakes.
14. With a dramatic flourish, the magician said, "Behold!" as he revealed his final trick.
15. She exclaimed, "Behold!" when she saw the rare bird perched on the branch.
16. The artist's latest masterpiece was unveiled, causing the crowd to behold it in awe.
17. Behold the fruits of your labor, for they are the result of hard work and dedication.
18. As the curtain rose, the audience was ready to behold the thrilling performance.
19. He turned the corner and, behold, stumbled upon a hidden garden filled with flowers.