

BEHOOF

Meaning: Behoof (noun): the benefit or advantage gained from something.

1. The committee met to discuss the behoof of the community project.
2. In her speech, she emphasized the behoof of education in shaping future leaders.
3. The charity event was organized for the behoof of those in need.
4. He donated a significant amount of money for the behoof of the struggling local arts program.
5. The decision was made with the behoof of the public interest in mind.
6. She wrote a letter to the council advocating for the behoof of the environment.
7. Their actions were taken not for personal gain, but for the behoof of others.
8. The foundation was established for the behoof of underprivileged children.
9. His dedication to the cause demonstrated his commitment to the behoof of society.
10. The new policy was designed with the behoof of the economy as a priority.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/behooof>