

BEHOWL

Meaning: To howl means to cry out or wail mournfully, often in grief or lamentation.

1. The mournful sound of the wolf began to howl as the night deepened.
2. In his grief, he could not help but howl at the loss of his beloved pet.
3. The old tree seemed to howl in the wind, its branches creaking ominously.
4. She felt the need to howl her frustrations at the unfairness of life.
5. As the storm raged outside, the distant thunder appeared to howl in response.
6. The haunting melody of the violin seemed to howl, echoing the sorrow within.
7. In folklore, spirits were said to howl when they were restless or seeking comfort.
8. The abandoned house gave off an eerie feeling, as if it were howling for attention.
9. During the ceremony, the participants would howl in unison, honoring their ancestors.
10. The sound of the train in the distance made her heart howl with nostalgia.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/howl>