

BEKNAVE

Meaning: To beknave means to deceive or trick someone, especially for personal gain.

1. The villain's plan was to beknave the unsuspecting townsfolk into giving up their savings.
2. In his desperate attempt to beknave his rivals, he resorted to spreading false rumors.
3. The con artist tried to beknave the elderly woman with promises of winning the lottery.
4. She realized too late that her trust had allowed him to beknave her completely.
5. With a charming smile, he aimed to beknave anyone who crossed his path.
6. The magician's tricks were so convincing that they seemed to beknave the entire audience.
7. He didn't mean to beknave his friends, but his lies spiraled out of control.
8. Her warnings were clear: do not let his flattery beknave you into making a poor decision.
9. The clever scheme was designed to beknave investors into funding a non-existent project.
10. Despite his reputation for honesty, he surprised everyone by attempting to beknave the committee.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/beknave>