

BELCH

Meaning: Belch (verb): to expel gas noisily from the stomach through the mouth.

1. He let out a loud belch after finishing his soda.
2. The dog belched loudly after eating its dinner.
3. She tried to stifle a belch but ended up laughing instead.
4. A belch escaped him just as he was about to speak.
5. The sound of a belch echoed through the quiet room.
6. Belching is often considered rude in formal settings.
7. He apologized for his belch, feeling embarrassed in front of his date.
8. The child giggled after a particularly loud belch at the dinner table.
9. After the feast, many guests were heard belching contentedly.
10. They shared a laugh over a belch that interrupted their conversation.
11. The child's belch echoed through the quiet restaurant, drawing amused glances.
12. She tried to suppress a belch during the formal dinner, but it escaped anyway.
13. After devouring his meal, he felt a belch rising in his throat.
14. The belch of the old engine signaled that it was time to check the oil.
15. Everyone laughed when he followed his belch with a sheepish grin.
16. Her attempt to be polite failed when a sudden belch interrupted the conversation.
17. He raised his hand apologetically after an unexpected belch at the meeting.
18. The dog belched loudly after finishing his dinner, clearly satisfied.
19. Belching is often seen as impolite in many cultures, but it can be a sign of enjoyment.
20. The baby giggled and belched after her first taste of solid food.
21. In the middle of the meeting, he accidentally belched, causing everyone to laugh.
22. She tried to stifle a belch, but it escaped her lips anyway.
23. After the feast, a chorus of belches filled the dining room.

24. He was embarrassed when he belched during the quiet moment in the movie.
25. Belching is a natural response to swallowing air while eating.
26. The dog belched contentedly after finishing its dinner.
27. He raised his hand sheepishly after letting out a belch in class.
28. Soda can cause you to belch more than other beverages.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/belch>