BELEAGUERER

Meaning: A beleaguerer is one who besieges or harasses, often surrounding or pressuring a person or place to achieve a goal.

1. The beleaguerer surrounded the fortress with an army, hoping to force a surrender.
2. She felt like a beleaguerer in her own home, constantly at odds with her family.
3. The beleaguerer’s relentless tactics wore down the morale of the defenders.
4. He became the beleaguerer of the project, constantly pushing for changes that frustrated the team.
5. Caught in a cycle of debt, he felt like a beleaguerer battling against insurmountable odds.
6. The beleaguerer’s strategy focused on isolating the enemy from their resources.
7. Despite being a beleaguerer, she managed to maintain her composure under pressure.
8. The beleaguerer’s demands seemed unreasonable, but negotiation was necessary for peace.
9. In literature, the beleaguerer often serves as a metaphor for internal struggles.
10. The beleaguerer’s persistence eventually led to a breakthrough in negotiations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/beleaguerer