

BELIEVABLE

Meaning: Believable: capable of being accepted as true or real; credible.

1. The magician's tricks were so well executed that they seemed almost believable.
2. Her explanation for being late was not very believable and raised some eyebrows.
3. In a world filled with fantasy, the story still managed to feel relatable and believable.
4. His performance was so convincing that the audience found it incredibly believable.
5. The documentary presented believable evidence that changed many people's perceptions.
6. Despite the outrageous claims, the scientist provided data that made his theory believable.
7. The actor delivered his lines with such emotion that the character became truly believable.
8. It was hard to find a believable reason for his sudden departure from the project.
9. The plot twist was unexpected, yet it remained believable within the context of the story.
10. The witnesses' accounts were consistent and painted a believable picture of the events.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/believable>