

BELIGHT

Meaning: Belight (verb): To illuminate or brighten with light.

1. The morning sun began to belight the forest, casting a golden glow on the leaves.
2. As the lanterns were lit, the garden started to belight with a warm and inviting ambiance.
3. Her smile seemed to belight the entire room, lifting everyone's spirits instantly.
4. The artist used vibrant colors to belight the canvas, creating an uplifting scene.
5. In the twilight hour, the stars began to belight the night sky with their shimmering presence.
6. A gentle breeze can belight even the heaviest of hearts, bringing a sense of peace.
7. The children's laughter would belight the playground, making it a joyful place for all.
8. With each passing moment, the city began to belight as the festival lights illuminated the streets.
9. The soft glow of the candles helped to belight the intimate gathering, creating a cozy atmosphere.
10. Words of kindness can belight someone's day, transforming their outlook entirely.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/belight>