

BELIKE

Meaning: Belike (adverb) - probably or likely.

1. She was late to the meeting, belike due to traffic.
2. His enthusiasm for the project was belike a reflection of his passion for the subject.
3. The weather forecast suggests it will rain tomorrow, belike making our picnic plans impossible.
4. Belike, she thought, they would need to reconsider their strategy after the recent feedback.
5. The old house, with its creaky floors and dusty corners, was belike haunted by memories.
6. Belike, they will finally understand the importance of teamwork after this challenge.
7. The artist's style is unique, belike nothing I've seen before.
8. He spoke about the challenges he faced, belike he was sharing a piece of his soul.
9. Belike, we should explore alternative solutions if this one doesn't work out.
10. Her calm demeanor during the crisis made everyone feel belike everything would be alright.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/belike>