

BELL-FACED

Meaning: BELL-FACED: having a shape or appearance that resembles a bell, typically characterized by a rounded or flared outline.

1. The bell-faced statue stood majestically in the center of the garden.
2. Her bell-faced silhouette was illuminated by the soft glow of the evening light.
3. He was captivated by the bell-faced flowers that bloomed vibrantly in the spring.
4. The artist chose a bell-faced design to represent the harmony of nature.
5. In the museum, the bell-faced pottery drew admiration from all the visitors.
6. Children laughed as they played around the bell-faced fountain in the park.
7. The bell-faced lanterns hung delicately from the trees, casting enchanting shadows.
8. She wore a bell-faced dress that flowed elegantly as she danced.
9. The bell-faced architecture of the ancient temple reflected the culture of the era.
10. His bell-faced expression revealed the joy he felt upon receiving the good news.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bell-faced>