

BELLED

Meaning: BELLED: (verb) past tense of "bell," meaning to produce a ringing sound or to adorn with a bell, often to signal or announce something.

1. The cat belled in a cheerful tone as it played with its favorite toy.
2. During the parade, the horses were belled to announce their grand entrance.
3. She belled the pumpkin to mark the start of the Halloween festivities.
4. The old church bells belled at noon, echoing through the quiet village.
5. As the sunset approached, the distant bells belled a soothing melody.
6. The children laughed as they watched the goat belled around the yard.
7. In the garden, the windchimes belled gently, creating a serene atmosphere.
8. He belled the news of their engagement to all his friends with joy.
9. The bell tower belled, signaling the end of the school day.
10. She found it amusing when her dog belled every time the doorbell rang.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/belled>