

BELLIGERENTLY

Meaning: BELLIGERENTLY: in a hostile or aggressive manner, often characterized by a readiness to fight or argue.

1. She argued belligerently, refusing to back down even when faced with overwhelming evidence.
2. The dog barked belligerently at anyone who approached its territory.
3. During the debate, he spoke belligerently, challenging every point made by his opponent.
4. The soldiers advanced belligerently, ready to confront the enemy head-on.
5. Her belligerently raised voice caught the attention of everyone in the room.
6. He approached the negotiation table belligerently, making it clear he had no intention of compromise.
7. The fans reacted belligerently when their team lost the match, leading to a chaotic scene.
8. In the meeting, she questioned the manager's decisions belligerently, creating an uncomfortable atmosphere.
9. The belligerently charged atmosphere made it difficult to maintain a civil conversation.
10. He treated the entire situation belligerently, as if conflict was the only resolution he could accept.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/belligerently>