

BELLING

Meaning: Belling refers to the sound made by bells or the loud, distinctive noise produced by hounds during a hunt.

1. The belling of the church tower echoed through the village at noon.
2. She could hear the belling of the hounds as they chased after the fox.
3. The festival was marked by the joyful belling of bells ringing in harmony.
4. During the storm, the belling of the wind against the windows was unsettling.
5. He admired the craftsmanship in the intricate belling of the antique clock.
6. The belling of the school bell signaled the end of recess for the students.
7. In the distance, the belling of a lone cow could be heard across the pasture.
8. The belling of the tram warned pedestrians to clear the tracks.
9. As evening fell, the soft belling of bells added to the tranquil atmosphere.
10. The belling of his laughter filled the room with warmth and cheer.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/belling>