

BELLOW

Meaning: BELLOW: to emit a loud, deep roar or cry, typically associated with anger or distress.

1. The angry bull began to bellow as it charged across the field.
2. She could hear him bellowing from the other side of the house during the storm.
3. The coach bellowed instructions to the players as they practiced on the field.
4. He let out a bellow of frustration when he realized he was lost.
5. In the distance, the bellow of a lion echoed through the savannah.
6. The crowd began to bellow for an encore after the incredible performance.
7. She bellowed with laughter at the comedian's hilarious joke.
8. The father bellowed at his children to come inside before it got dark.
9. As the thunder rolled, the sky seemed to bellow with impending rain.
10. He felt a primal urge to bellow his joy at the news of his promotion.
11. She bellowed instructions to her team over the noise of the crowd.
12. In the distance, we could hear the bellow of a foghorn warning ships of danger.
13. His voice bellowed with authority, commanding everyone's attention in the room.
14. The child bellowed in frustration when he couldn't find his favorite toy.
15. At the concert, the lead singer bellowed the lyrics with incredible passion.
16. The lion bellowed in the night, a majestic sound that echoed through the jungle.
17. During the debate, he bellowed his points passionately, trying to sway the audience.
18. The coach bellowed from the sidelines, urging his players to give their all.
19. As the storm approached, the wind began to bellow through the trees.
20. The lion began to bellow loudly, signaling its dominance over the territory.
21. As the storm raged outside, he could hear the wind bellowing through the cracks in the windows.
22. During the concert, the crowd began to bellow the lyrics of their favorite song.

23. The coach would bellow instructions from the sidelines, pushing the team to perform better.
 24. When the fire alarm went off, the building erupted into a bellow of confused voices.
 25. She could bellow with laughter, her joy echoing through the entire room.
 26. The angry bull began to bellow, warning anyone who dared to approach its space.
 27. In the heat of the argument, he couldn't help but bellow his frustrations at her.
 28. The teacher had a way of bellowing that commanded respect and attention from her students.
 29. At the festival, the audience would bellow their appreciation after each performance.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bellow>