

BELLYBOUND

Meaning: Bellybound: positioned or lying on one's stomach, often in a playful or imaginative manner.

1. The adventurous toddler was bellybound in the sand, giggling with delight.
2. She found herself bellybound on the living room floor, lost in a world of imagination.
3. The puppy playfully rolled over, bellybound and begging for a scratch.
4. On the slippery slide, he landed bellybound, laughing as he bounced to the bottom.
5. During the yoga class, she struggled to maintain her balance while bellybound on the mat.
6. The cat curled up bellybound on the sunlit windowsill, enjoying the warmth.
7. He quickly realized that bellybound was the only way to slide down the hill with style.
8. The kids spent the afternoon bellybound, creating shapes with their bodies in the grass.
9. After the fall, he lay bellybound, staring up at the clouds with a smile.
10. The toddler, bellybound on the carpet, was completely absorbed in her puzzle.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bellybound>