

BELLYFUL

Meaning: Bellyful: a satisfying or ample amount of something, particularly food or enjoyment.

1. After a long day of hiking, we had a bellyful of delicious homemade stew.
2. The children laughed and played until they had a bellyful of fun at the fair.
3. She knew she could eat a bellyful of dessert after finishing her main course.
4. His stories were so captivating that I could listen to a bellyful of them without getting bored.
5. After the feast, we all settled down with a bellyful of food and shared our favorite memories.
6. The puppy had run around so much that it finally collapsed with a bellyful of energy spent.
7. We enjoyed a bellyful of laughter as we reminisced about our childhood adventures.
8. With a bellyful of excitement, she opened her birthday presents one by one.
9. He always claimed he could take a bellyful of spicy food, but that night proved him wrong.
10. After the long meeting, everyone left with a bellyful of information to digest.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bellyful>