

BELTED

Meaning: Belted: past tense of belt; to sing or speak loudly and passionately, or to fasten securely with a belt or strap.

1. She belted out the song with such passion that everyone in the room stopped to listen.
2. The hiker belted his backpack tightly before setting off on the trail.
3. After dinner, he belted his jeans and prepared for a night out.
4. She belted her child into the car seat before starting the engine.
5. The athlete belted the ball over the fence, securing the win for his team.
6. As the storm approached, they belted down the windows to keep the rain out.
7. He belted the door shut, ensuring no drafts could enter the house.
8. With a deep breath, she belted her fears away and took the stage.
9. The teacher belted out instructions, trying to be heard over the noisy classroom.
10. They belted themselves in before the roller coaster took off at full speed.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/belted>