

BEMASK

Meaning: To bemark means to conceal or disguise one's true feelings, identity, or intentions.

1. She decided to bemark her true emotions during the interview.
2. The artist chose to bemark his identity to create an air of mystery around his work.
3. In an effort to bemark her anxiety, she practiced deep breathing before the presentation.
4. They often bemark their intentions with friendly smiles and polite gestures.
5. The magician's ability to bemark his tricks left the audience in awe.
6. He wore a disguise to bemark his presence at the event.
7. To bemark the bitter taste of the medicine, they added a sweet syrup.
8. In social situations, it's common for people to bemark their insecurities with humor.
9. The company decided to bemark the real reason for the layoffs to avoid panic among employees.
10. She expertly bemarked her disappointment with a cheerful facade.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bemark>