

BEMOANER

Meaning: BEMOANER: a person who frequently expresses dissatisfaction or complaints, often in a way that negatively affects the mood of others.

1. The constant bemoaner in the group often brought down the mood of our gatherings.
2. She was known as the bemoaner, always complaining about the smallest inconveniences.
3. Despite his talent, he became a bemoaner about every setback in his career.
4. The bemoaner complained loudly about the lack of support from his colleagues.
5. Her reputation as a bemoaner made others hesitant to invite her to events.
6. No one wanted to befriend the bemoaner who could turn any conversation into a gripe session.
7. His role as a bemoaner overshadowed his many achievements and contributions.
8. Whenever we discussed plans, the bemoaner would inevitably find a flaw to criticize.
9. The bemoaner's negativity was exhausting, and many friends began to distance themselves.
10. Even amidst success, the bemoaner focused on the one aspect that didn't go as planned.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bemoaner>