

BEMOIL

Meaning: To bemoil means to apply oil or a soothing substance to the skin or muscles for nourishment or relaxation.

1. The ancient recipe called for a blend of herbs to bemoil the skin for a radiant glow.
2. After a long day, I used a warm oil to bemoil my tired muscles and relieve the tension.
3. He decided to bemoil the wooden furniture to enhance its natural beauty and protect it from damage.
4. The spa offered a service to bemoil the hair, leaving it shiny and deeply nourished.
5. As part of her skincare routine, she would always bemoil her face to keep it hydrated.
6. To preserve the leather, he chose to bemoil the boots every few months.
7. The chef recommended using a special blend to bemoil the meat before grilling for added flavor.
8. She learned how to bemoil her sewing machine, ensuring it ran smoothly for her projects.
9. The artisan would bemoil the canvas to prepare it for painting and achieve vibrant colors.
10. To create a smooth finish, it's essential to bemoil the surfaces before applying the final coat.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bemoil>