

BEMOURN

Meaning: BEMOURN (verb): To express sorrow or grief over a loss or lament the passing of something cherished.

1. The community gathered to bemourn the loss of their beloved mayor.
2. She took a moment to bemourn the fleeting nature of childhood.
3. Friends and family came together to bemourn the tragic event that had unfolded.
4. It is natural to bemourn what we can no longer hold dear.
5. They began to bemourn their relationship after years of misunderstandings.
6. The artist's latest work seemed to bemourn the passing of time.
7. As the final notes faded, the audience felt compelled to bemourn the end of the concert.
8. In her journal, she would often bemourn the dreams that never came true.
9. They paused to bemourn the fading memories of their youth.
10. The poem beautifully captures the essence of those who bemourn lost opportunities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bemourn>