

BEMUFFLE

Meaning: BEMUFFLE (verb): To deaden or soften sounds or light by covering or insulating.

1. The artist tried to bemuffle the loud sounds of the city with soothing music.
2. She used thick curtains to bemuffle the bright sunlight streaming into her room.
3. His soft-spoken words seemed to bemuffle the tension in the crowded room.
4. To create a cozy atmosphere, they decided to bemuffle the harsh lights with warm lamps.
5. The team's strategy was to bemuffle the opposing players' strengths during the game.
6. As winter approached, they bemuffled their home with extra insulation and blankets.
7. The gentle snowfall outside helped to bemuffle the usual noise of the busy street.
8. He sought to bemuffle his worries with a good book and a cup of tea.
9. To enhance the sound quality, they opted to bemuffle the echo in the rehearsal space.
10. Her kind demeanor seemed to bemuffle the harsh criticism from her peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bemuffle>