BEND

Meaning: BEND (verb): To alter or deviate from a straight line or established rule, often in a flexible or accommodating manner.

1. She decided to bend the rules just this once.
2. The road began to bend sharply around the mountain.
3. He felt a sudden urge to bend down and tie his shoelaces.
4. With a gentle tug, she managed to bend the metal rod into shape.
5. The tree's branches tend to bend under the weight of heavy snow.
6. They had to bend their plans to accommodate the new schedule.
7. In yoga class, it’s important to bend your body in a way that feels comfortable.
8. The artist chose to bend light in innovative ways through her installations.
9. As he tried to fit through the narrow space, he had to bend his back.
10. The river will bend and twist as it flows through the valley.
11. She decided to bend the rules a little for her friend's birthday surprise.
12. The path began to bend sharply to the left, leading into the dense forest.
13. He had to bend down to pick up the coin that had fallen on the ground.
14. The artist used a flexible wire to bend the sculpture into an elegant shape.
15. As the storm approached, the trees began to bend under the force of the wind.
16. In yoga class, we learned how to bend our bodies into various challenging poses.
17. She tried to bend his stubborn will with a heartfelt plea for understanding.
18. The road will bend around the lake, offering beautiful views of the water.
19. To fix the pipe, he needed to bend it at a precise angle for a proper fit.
20. Sometimes you have to bend a little to accommodate the needs of others.
21. She had to bend down to pick up the coin from the floor.
22. The road will bend to the left after the bridge.

23. He felt a sudden pain in his back when he tried to bend over.

24. The artist decided to bend the metal into a beautiful sculpture.

25. I watched the tree bend under the weight of the heavy snow.

26. You need to bend the rules a little to make it work for everyone.

27. The gymnast was able to bend her body in ways that amazed the crowd.

28. It's important to bend your knees when lifting something heavy.

29. The plot of the movie began to bend towards unexpected twists and turns.

30. As the sun set, the light seemed to bend through the clouds, creating a stunning view.

31. She had to bend the rules a little to accommodate his request.

32. The tree began to bend under the weight of the heavy snow.

33. He decided to bend down and tie his shoelaces before continuing.

34. The metal rod can bend easily without breaking if heated properly.

35. During the yoga class, she learned how to bend and stretch her body gracefully.

36. As the river flows, it tends to bend around the rocks in its path.

37. The engineer had to bend the design to meet safety regulations.

38. With a gentle push, he was able to bend the paper without tearing it.

39. It’s important to bend your knees when lifting heavy objects to avoid injury.

40. She watched as the dancer seemed to bend effortlessly with the music.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bend