

BENDER

Meaning: BENDER: a period of excessive indulgence in alcohol or drugs; also, a curved or twisted shape in an object or structure.

1. After a long week of work, he decided to go on a bender with his friends.
2. The artist's latest sculpture featured a dramatic bender that twisted towards the sky.
3. She woke up after a bender, regretting the choices she made the night before.
4. The bender in the metal pipe caused a leak that needed urgent repair.
5. His reckless bender at the bar left him with a headache and a handful of regrets.
6. The group planned a weekend bender to celebrate their friend's birthday in style.
7. During the winter storms, the tree's branches bent in a graceful bender under the weight of the snow.
8. He was notorious for going on a bender every time his favorite team lost a game.
9. The bender in the design added a unique flair to the otherwise straight lines of the building.
10. She laughed as she recounted her wild bender from last summer's vacation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bender>