

BENEFACTOR

Meaning: A benefactor is a person who provides financial support or assistance to an individual or organization, often for charitable purposes.

1. The anonymous benefactor donated a significant sum to the local children's hospital.
2. She felt grateful to her benefactor for funding her scholarship to study abroad.
3. The community celebrated the benefactor who had revitalized the park with new playground equipment.
4. His reputation as a benefactor grew when he helped several families avoid foreclosure.
5. The organization named its new building after the benefactor in recognition of her generosity.
6. Her kind-hearted benefactor always encouraged her artistic pursuits and provided necessary resources.
7. As a benefactor, he took pride in supporting education initiatives in underserved neighborhoods.
8. The annual gala aimed to attract new benefactors to fund the arts program in schools.
9. Without the benefactor's support, many of the charity's projects would not have been possible.
10. The story of the mysterious benefactor inspired others to contribute to the local food bank.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/benefactor>