

BENEFACTRESS

Meaning: A benefactress is a woman who provides financial support or assistance to an organization or individual, often for charitable purposes.

1. The renowned author became a benefactress to the local library, funding its expansion.
2. She was hailed as a benefactress when she donated a significant amount to the children's hospital.
3. The university celebrated its benefactress at the annual gala, recognizing her years of support.
4. Her generous spirit earned her the title of benefactress among the community's artists.
5. As a benefactress, she felt a deep responsibility to improve the lives of others.
6. The benefactress established a scholarship program to help underprivileged students attend college.
7. In her will, she named her niece as the benefactress of her vast estate.
8. The foundation was built through the efforts of a benevolent benefactress dedicated to education.
9. Her role as a benefactress inspired others to contribute to charitable causes.
10. The benefactress's legacy lived on through the countless lives she transformed with her generosity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/benefactress>