

BENEVOLENT

Meaning: Benevolent: characterized by a desire to do good and show kindness to others.

1. The benevolent woman donated her time to help the local shelter.
2. His benevolent smile reassured the children that everything would be alright.
3. The organization was known for its benevolent work in the community.
4. They appreciated her benevolent nature, always willing to lend a hand.
5. A benevolent leader can inspire others to achieve great things.
6. The benevolent gift from the philanthropist transformed the school.
7. In the story, the benevolent fairy granted wishes to those in need.
8. Their benevolent actions during the crisis earned them widespread admiration.
9. He had a benevolent spirit, always thinking of others before himself.
10. The benevolent community came together to support the victims of the disaster.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/benevolent>