

BENIGHT

Meaning: To benight means to cover or envelop in darkness or night.

1. The sudden storm seemed to benight the entire village, plunging it into darkness.
2. As night fell, the forest began to benight the path, making it difficult to navigate.
3. The thick fog began to benight the coastline, obscuring the lighthouse's beam.
4. Her fear of the unknown would often benight her thoughts, leaving her paralyzed.
5. They watched as the sun set, knowing that the encroaching darkness would soon benight their camp.
6. In the eerie silence, the shadows seemed to benight the room, enhancing his sense of dread.
7. The events of the day left her mind feeling benighted, shrouded in confusion and doubt.
8. It was a tale so haunting that it could benight the hearts of even the bravest souls.
9. The city's bright lights could not completely dispel the feeling that the night would benight the lonely streets.
10. Time seemed to benight his memories, blurring the details of the past into obscurity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/benight>