

BEPLUMED

Meaning: Beplumed: adorned or decorated with feathers.

1. The peacock strutted across the garden, beplumed in a vibrant display of iridescent feathers.
2. She wore a beplumed hat that caught everyone's attention at the grand ball.
3. The artist depicted a beplumed bird soaring gracefully through the azure sky.
4. He admired the beplumed quills that adorned the ancient manuscript.
5. In the parade, the dancers were beplumed in colorful costumes, celebrating the festival.
6. The beplumed helmet of the warrior gleamed under the sunlight, a symbol of honor.
7. As spring arrived, the trees were beplumed with fresh green leaves, signaling new life.
8. The bride walked down the aisle, her bouquet beplumed with delicate flowers.
9. The fashion show featured a model wearing a beplumed cape that flowed dramatically behind her.
10. Children squealed in delight as they watched the beplumed birds flit about in the aviary.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/beplumed>