

BEPOWDER

Meaning: To bepowder means to enhance or embellish something, often by adding a decorative or flavorful element.

1. The magician decided to bepowder his performance with a spectacular finale.
2. To enhance the flavor, she chose to bepowder the dish with a blend of spices.
3. He was careful to bepowder the cake with sugar before serving it to guests.
4. The artist wanted to bepowder the canvas with vibrant colors to make it pop.
5. They planned to bepowder the garden with colorful flowers in the spring.
6. The chef advised the novice cook to bepowder the chicken with herbs for better taste.
7. As part of the ceremony, they would bepowder the newlyweds with petals as they exited the venue.
8. The stylist recommended they bepowder their hair for a more voluminous look.
9. During the festival, locals often bepowder their outfits with traditional patterns.
10. She decided to bepowder the presentation with engaging visuals to captivate the audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bepowder>