

BERATTLE

Meaning: To berattle means to disturb or unsettle someone, causing them to feel confused or anxious.

1. The sudden noise from the alley seemed to berattle him, making him hesitate.
2. She tried to stay calm, but the unexpected news managed to berattle her composure.
3. The constant interruptions during the meeting were enough to berattle even the most patient participants.
4. His lack of preparation for the presentation only served to berattle his confidence further.
5. As the storm approached, the howling wind began to berattle the shutters of the old house.
6. The unexpected turn of events seemed to berattle the entire team, leaving them in shock.
7. Even the most experienced players can be berattled by a sudden change in the game.
8. The loud crash outside caused her to berattle her thoughts and lose her train of speech.
9. Witnessing the argument between her friends started to berattle her sense of loyalty.
10. The sudden influx of new information can berattle anyone trying to grasp the subject.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/berattle>