BEREFT

Meaning: Bereft: deprived of or lacking something, especially a loved one or cherished memories.

1. The sudden loss of her grandmother left her feeling utterly bereft.
2. He wandered through the empty house, bereft of all the laughter and memories they once shared.
3. After the breakup, he felt bereft, as if a part of him had been taken away.
4. The forest stood silent and bereft after the devastating storm had uprooted so many trees.
5. She looked around at the abandoned playground, bereft of children's laughter and joy.
6. His heart felt bereft in the absence of her warm smile and gentle touch.
7. The artist felt bereft of inspiration after receiving harsh criticism of his work.
8. In the aftermath of the disaster, the community was left bereft and searching for hope.
9. With each passing day, he became more bereft of the dreams that once fueled his ambition.
10. The old photograph captured a moment in time, yet now it felt bereft of all meaning.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bereft