

BERSTLE

Meaning: 'Berstle' means to tremble or shake with a strong, often sudden, movement or feeling.

1. The old barn began to berstle as the wind picked up, sending loose hay swirling into the air.
2. She felt her heart berstle with excitement as she opened the letter from her dream university.
3. The leaves on the trees would berstle gently in the breeze, creating a soothing melody.
4. His laughter would berstle through the room, filling it with warmth and joy.
5. As the storm approached, the branches started to berstle ominously against the windows.
6. In the quiet of the night, she could hear the distant sounds of a party berstle in the background.
7. The fabric of the dress would berstle every time she moved, drawing attention to her graceful figure.
8. During the festival, the lanterns would berstle brightly, illuminating the faces of children.
9. The cat's fur began to berstle as it spotted the approaching dog, ready to make a quick escape.
10. With each passing moment, the tension in the room began to berstle, making everyone uneasy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/berstle>