

BESCORN

Meaning: BESCORN (verb): to express disdain or contempt for someone or something; to scorn or belittle.

1. He felt bescorned by his peers after he failed to deliver on his promise.
2. The critic's review seemed to bescorn the artist's hard work and dedication.
3. She couldn't understand why her ideas were often bescorned in meetings.
4. To bescorn someone's efforts without recognizing their intent is unjust.
5. His tendency to bescorn others often left him isolated from his friends.
6. The movie's plot was so ridiculous that it seemed to bescorn the audience's intelligence.
7. They were quick to bescorn the proposal, dismissing it without a second thought.
8. In her speech, she made sure not to bescorn anyone, even those with opposing views.
9. It's disheartening when you pour your heart into a project only to be bescorned.
10. He chose to rise above the negativity rather than let it bescorn his confidence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bescorn>