

BESCRAWL

Meaning: BESCRAWL: to write or draw carelessly and hastily, often in a chaotic or unrefined manner.

1. The child began to bescrawl the walls with colorful crayons.
2. Frustrated with the blank page, she decided to bescrawl her thoughts freely.
3. His notes were a chaotic mix of ideas, as if he had bescrawled them in a hurry.
4. The artist loved to bescrawl her emotions onto the canvas in wild strokes.
5. During the lecture, he couldn't help but bescrawl doodles in the margins of his notebook.
6. The message was hard to decipher because he had chosen to bescrawl it in haste.
7. She found joy in the freedom to bescrawl her dreams on a giant piece of paper.
8. The graffiti artist would often bescrawl inspirational quotes around the city.
9. He warned his students not to bescrawl their essays if they wanted to make a good impression.
10. In a moment of creativity, she began to bescrawl lyrics on a napkin.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bescrawl>