

BESCRIBBLE

Meaning: BESCRIBBLE: to draw or write carelessly or in a decorative manner, often in a way that is playful or artistic.

1. The children began to describe the walls of the old classroom with colorful drawings.
2. He couldn't resist the urge to describe the pages of his notebook with doodles.
3. As the artist worked, he would often describe his sketches with vibrant colors.
4. The teacher frowned upon students who would describe their desks with ink and pencil.
5. In a moment of creativity, she decided to describe the margins of her textbook.
6. The walls of the alley were describe with graffiti, telling stories of the past.
7. She found it hard to concentrate on her work with the urge to describe her thoughts on paper.
8. When the meeting ended, some attendees started to describe the whiteboard with their ideas.
9. His habit of describe every piece of scrap paper made it hard for him to stay organized.
10. They chose to describe the canvas with bold strokes that conveyed their emotions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/bescribble>