

BESHUT

Meaning: 'BESHUT' (verb): to be overgrown or covered, especially by plants or vines, creating an appearance of wildness or neglect.

1. The old house was beshut with vines, giving it a mysterious charm.
2. After the storm, the garden looked beshut, as if nature had taken over.
3. The abandoned factory stood beshut, its walls covered in creeping ivy.
4. She walked through the beshut landscape, feeling a sense of quiet beauty.
5. His once pristine collection of books now lay beshut and dusty on the shelf.
6. The village was beshut in autumn colors, creating a picturesque scene.
7. Despite being beshut for years, the castle still held an air of majesty.
8. The path was beshut by fallen leaves, making it hard to see where to step.
9. Her memories of the beshut park were filled with laughter and joy.
10. The artist captured the essence of the beshut landscape in her painting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/beshut>